Dear Jean,

I wanted to thank you for the Arinder and Laid info
you sent some time ago -

Dewitt Arinder is son of William W.

son of Rufus

Tillman's desc
ARINDER
Sampson's desc
ARINDER }

son of Tillman Arinder son of Henry + Alextha (McCarty) <sup>grand</sup>

The Laid's may be part of the large Barfield clan of Laid's who sort of spread about. They today pronounce their to rhyme with "air", L'air'd, while those in my earlier family were definitely L'air'd.
I think, though, they are all the same family, as I know the Richardsons + Laid's moved together from Bogue Chitto River in Lawrence or Pike Co. to the "flatwoods" of Scott Co about 1837 or 1838.

About Thomas + Jane (? Hutto?) Hough. They must have met in Scott Co. I haven't looked for a Jane near to Thomas in 1850 or 1860. Thomas' parents have eluded me. I don't doubt he is grandson of Francis Hough of Wayne Co, but I can not fix his parents as Singleton or Allison or even Leonard Hough.

ARINDER

I've now confirmed that Tillman, and his wives did have trouble. He left or divorced

Minerva (Hagon), but she continued to have Arrinder ch<sup>n</sup> <sup>after Tillman's marriage.</sup> She lived near or with ~~the~~ Tillman's sister, Matilda Mason in Jones Co.

The Arrinders could get downright self-righteous when describing the indiscretions of the Arrinders. I remember my aged grandmother describing Minerva (Hagon) Arrinder's activities while Tillman was in Civil War service. She used phrases I'd never heard before and haven't heard since. However, Tillman was no better. One of my uncles had a bull of very amorous disposition who he promptly named "Tillman Arrinder."

So the elder Arrinders kept their distance from the Arrindens, never being sure which were true blood cousins and which weren't. The evidence today suggests they were all Tillman's children, he having an early view of "open marriages," with two wives <sup>each</sup> in adjacent counties, having children right along.

The Arrinders turned out to be fine people, more sociable than Arrinders. So far as I know, the only ones to reach Parchman Penitentiary for murder or ex-stealing or manslaughter or wife-beating were Arrinders, my line.

SAMPSON AND NANCY ARENDER OF MS

Sampson ORRINDER (or ARENDER) (1825 Wayne Co, MS - 24 Oct 1919 Smith Co, MS) did not become ARENDER until the middle of his life. Little is known of his early years. After his father died or disappeared, he likely stayed with MCCARTY relatives. In 1850, he was overseer for Orange MCCARTY in Clark Co. (Sampson's death certificate shows him born in Clark Co, MS, in 1825 and age 94. As Clark Co had not been formed in 1825, he was likely born in the northern portion of Wayne Co where the MCCARTY families lived. Part of the area in Wayne Co in 1825 was put in Clark Co when that county was formed in 1833. His parents were Henry ARENDER and Aletha MCCARTY.) Sampson ORRINDER was in Smith Co, or nearby in Rankin County from the time of his marriage on 15 Sep 1856 in Smith Co to Nancy BOWEN (31 Jan 1842 Polkville, MS - 11 May 1928 MS) dau of Samuel and Sallie (HARTLEY) BOWEN, until his death, with the exception of his Civil War service. He was a tenant farmer, working on shares, until late in his life. As he lived to the ripe age of 94, he had plenty of time. Part of his life he worked the MCCARTY farm in Rankin Co, 3 miles from Polkville. He homesteaded 120 acres two miles south of Polkville in 1879. Later he obtained land on Little Cohay Creek south of Raleigh next to his daughter and son-in-law James M. RICHARDSON.

Thomas F. Richardson documented the life of Sampson and Nancy as he observed it as a grandchild. His grandfather was already an old man by normal standards. However, Sampson and Nancy had children not much older than Tom. There were 14 in all:

1. Albert Samuel (17 Nov 1859 Polkville, MS - 4 Aug 1935 MS) md Georgie Ann TRAXLER and lived in the Polkville community. Ch incl Aletha; Laura Victoria; and Jennie. A. S. Arender gave the information which was placed on his father's death certificate.
2. Sance 923 Sep 1863 Polkville, MS - 25 Dec 1939 Piney Grove, MS) md (1) Maggie DILMORE and ch incl Martha Naomi; Mathew Henry; Leah Mae; Pearl Jane; Rawls; Arthur William; James Monroe; Ida Manly; child, name not recalled; Sally Nancy; Walter Jacob; and John Murphy. Maggie d. in 1895, and Sance ARENDER md at least once more to a widow, but they could not get along. Her adult sons drove him away, and he wandered the countryside, living with relatives. In a visit with his niece, Lizzie HOUGH, Sance ARENDER helped Granville HOUGH learn how to pick cotton when Granville was about 6 years old. "Uncle Sance" was relative to about 1000 people at the time and was constantly on the move. For some years, he sold goat hide shoe strings to gain some cash.

3. Mary (20 Aug 1865 Polkville, MS - Oct 1937 Memphis, TN) md James Martin RICHARDSON and lived at Polkville, on Cohay, and in the Concord community of Smith Co. RICHARDSON ch incl Samuel Luke; Sydney Sylvanus; William Martin; Nancy Elizabeth; James C; Eliza Jane; Thomas Franklin; Fannie M.; Emma W.; Theresa L; Coley Sampson; Annie M.; and Rosabelle.
4. Caroline (11 Nov 1868 Polkville, MS - 9 Nov 1942, Polkville) md Joseph R. TRAXLER, and their ch were Henry; Enoch; and Levi. "Uncle Joe" TRAXLER sold gravestones to make a living.
5. Henry Monroe (6 Aug 1870 Polkville, MS - 10 Jan 1937 LA) md Mattie KENNEDY and moved to LA and OK. Ch incl Homer S; Laura; Sarah C.; Lem D.; Mary Elizabeth; Nancy Gertrude; Lois; Monroe; and Barney;
6. Amos Whitfield (12 Jan 1872 Polkville, MS - 7 Dec 1926 Colfax, LA) md Kate KENNEDY. Ch incl Clarissa Viola; Mattie Mae; Claude Whitfield; Laura Adeline; Para Lee; and Nancy Ruth. "Uncle Amos" was tried for a murder of a mail carrier in Smith Co and was sentenced to life in prison. Strenuous efforts by his family finally got him parolled. While he was in prison, Kate and the children lived with his parents. For Lizzie (RICHARDSON) HOUGH, "Aunt Kate" was her favorite of all her aunts.
7. Sally Genita (16 May 1873 Polkville, MS - 23 Aug 1952 MS) md James BALDWIN and lived in the Sardis community near Sampson ARENDER and Jim RICHARDSON. The BALDWIN ch incl Myrtle; Spurgeon; Tarsey June; Plummer James; Bettie; Patrick Henry; McAlister; Annie Dora; Homer Buttell; Lyda; Ethel L; and Eunice Irene. "Aunt Sally" and "Uncle Jim" remained in the Sardis community and for a while Spurgeon BALDWIN lived in the old ARENDER home.
8. Porter Louis (17 May 1876 Polkville, MS - Burns, MS) md Angie MIDDLETON and ch incl Leonard Lee; Dewey Dewitt; Nancy Louise; Sallie; Amos Whitfield; and Vilos Lois. "Uncle Porter" was in the same age group as Elisha HOUGH and he and the ARENDER sons of that group sometimes worked together "splitting staves" to make house coverings. Another nearby family was that of the PADGETTs. Once Porter ARENDER and Leonard PADGETT got into a fight which included gouging and biting. Uncle Porter lost part of his ear, but Uncle Porter said Leonard PADGETT may have lost more.
9. Leonard (5 Oct 1878 Polkville, MS - 1968 Rayville, LA) md (1) Mattie MOORE and (2) Mary _____, Ch incl Ernest Burl; "Uncle Leonard" became a Baptist minister and settled in LA fairly young.
10. Lona Jane (29 Feb 1880 Polkville, MS - Raleigh, MS) md George ROBERTS and ch incl Fannie Lee; Alice Myrtle; Willie;

Leonard Jess; Reba; Carrie Jane; James Franklin; Bernice Bertha; Woodrow Wilson; Dalton Botha; and George Howard. Despite having all the ch, "Aunt Lonie" and "Uncle George" could not get along, and Uncle George became a wanderer among relatives, like Uncle Sance. He could be quite personable, but he may have been an alcoholic. He seemed to prefer life among shiftless and indolent "white trash." While staying with one of these families, he gave the impression he carried money. He was brutally murdered and buried in a washtub under rocks and sand in a nearby creek. The man and wife who carried out the deed were tried and found guilty, and he served several years in prison.

11. Alhanon Hulon (13 May 1882 Polkville, MS - Raleigh, MS) md Lottie MYERS and their ch incl Hulon L.; Merble Jane; Jewel Essie; Hershel K; Ora Bettie; Coley Sampson; Cylde Truman; Ruth Dora; Charlotte May; Camile; and Maxine. "Uncle Alhanon" and "Aunt Lottie" lived for several years in the Shady Grove community not far from the Elisha HOUGH family, and the children became well acquainted.

12. Guy Warren (19 June 1884 Polkville, MS - 11 July 1963 MS) md Lela PATTERSON and ch incl Glen A; Gathel J; Beatrice E; and Belvie M.

13. Noll Frederick (25 Feb 1886 Raleigh, MS - 24 Aug 1966 Polkville, MS) md Aletha DUKES and ch incl Flora Nancy; Roma Versie; Robert Samson; Vavis; infant; Crimmon; Luther Franklin; Earline; Irene; Jimmie Lee; and Wayne Frederick.

14. Banie (11 Aug 1889 Raleigh, MS - Oct 1987 Magee, MS) md Singleton "Sang" AINSWORTH and their ch incl Mary Edna; James Gathel; Minnie Gertrude; Albert Floyd; Gladys Myrtle; Rena Reed; Merl; Herman B.; Irene; Ruby Gay; and seven infants who d. young. "Aunt Banie" was the same age as Lizzie RICHARDSON and was her playmate. She md at age 13, but she proudly told an inquisitor in 1980, "I didn't get pregnant until I was 14." "Uncle Sang" and Elisha HOUGH were close associates in the old community on Cohay Creek.

Lineage is Sampson and Nancy (BOWEN) ARENDER of MS; Henry and Alouthea (MCCARTY) ORINDER of SC and MS; ORRENDER family of Edgefield Co, SC;

Bowen lineage is Nancy (BOWEN) and Sampson ARENDER of MS; Samuel and Sarah (HARTLEY) BOWEN of MS;

TILLMAN ARINDER AND 2 WIVES (THE OTHER ARINDERS)

In MS, there are ARENDERS, and there are ARINDERS. Two ORENDER brothers started the families, with Sampson adopting ARENDER and Tillman adopting ARINDER. Each group speaks of its cousins as the "other ARENDERS/ARINDERS," but most are aware of their common origin.

The Tillman ARINDER <sup>family</sup> follows in the detail readily available from census and other records, plus some tradition.

Tillman ARINDER (2 Jul 1830 Rankin Co, MS - after 1910 MS) grew up among his McCARTY relatives after his father, Henry ORINDER, disappeared about 1840. He is first readily identifiable in Clarke Co, MS, in 1860, with wife M. and son Rufus F. His mother, Leatha (McCARTY) ORINDER, was with him, and that is the last record found so far for her.

The ARENDER tradition is that Tillman first md Minerva HOGAN (1840 MS - after 1880), poss. dau of John C. and Sarah HOGAN, and had two ch to incl Rufus F. and Mary K., and possibly others.

The next records for Tillman are those of his Confederate service in Comp E, 8th Miss Inf, and Comp F, 40th Miss Inf. He had honorable records in both regiments. During the long years of his service and absence, his wife became restless; and troubles began for Tillman.

Either during or after the War, Tillman and Minerva separated or divorced; but the exact timing of this event has not been determined. What is known is that Tillman md (2) Elizabeth PATTERSON (1846/47 MS - ), and that she and Tillman were together in 1870 with ch: Rufus F.; Mary K.; Horace Henry; and William F. It is assumed that Horace Henry and William F. were her ch. One other ch is known for them, but it died soon after birth. Known ch and grand ch for Tillman were:

1. Rufus F. (Apr 1856 MS - after 1920) md (1) Margaret Emmerline ??? (Apr 1854/57 MS - ), and lived in that part of Covington Co which became Jeff Davis Co. Their ch incl: a. Luther (1877 MS); b. Rosa Lee (Oct 80); c. Charles M. (Sep 83); d. William W. (Aug 88); and possibly others.

b. Rosa Lee (Oct 1880 MS - ) md ??? GRAVES, and their GRAVES ch incl: Ethel (Aug 97); and Mary A. (Mar 1900); (Rosa Lee GRAVES and these two ch were with Rufus F. in 1900).

c. Charles M. "Charlie" (Sep 83 MS - after 1920) in 1920 lived in Lamar Co, MS, md to Melvina ??? (1893 MS), with ch: Elma (1909); Elzie (1911); Estus (1913); Chester

Two others of this fam are bur at Double Churches: Dewitt (2 Jan 1938 - no date), and probably his wife Evelyn (4 Sep 1942 - no date). Not far away, at the John Graves Cemetery is a wife and mother, Johnnie Lou (STAPLETON) ARINDER (10 Jul 1933 - 14 May 1974).

Mary Etta held SSN 428-26-1208, R ZIP 39428

The strange story in Tillman's affairs is what happened to his separated or divorced first wife. If the records are for the same person, she was friendly with Zebedee and Tildy MASON, Tildy being sister of Tillman. In 1870, she was in Jones Co, MS, 2 houses from Zebedee as housekeeper M. ARINDER, with ch Martha (1864) and Dicy (1867). In 1880, she was in the hh of Zebedee and Tildy as a servant. Her ch were then listed as Nicey (1867); Visey (1871); Albana (1876); and Anjaline (1878 MS). The father of these ch was not listed on the census records. It seems probable that their father was not Tillman ARINDER, as he had a legitimate wife and family elsewhere. 1

Some light on this situation may be in the Jones County Chancery ~~Count~~ records. On 29 Jul 1872, William McCURDY applied to admin. the estate of John C. HOGAN, ~~McCurdy~~ McCurdy being a creditor of the estate. HOGAN had d intestate in 1869, and the widow, Sarah, and her adult ch had sold HOGAN's land to Zebedee MASON. McCURDY stated the widow and younger ch had moved to LA. He asked that Zebedee MASON and the heirs be brought to court so he could recover the land and the debt. It is not known how this conflict was resolved, but it seems likely that Minerva (HOGAN) ARINDER was part of this family. It could be that she was with Zebedee MASON in 1880, working off the debt.

Arinder/Orender lineage is Tillman and Minerva (Hogan) and Elizabeth (Patterson) of MS; Henry and Alouthea (McCarty) of SC and MS; poss. Isaac and Lydia ( ) Orander of VA and SC;

ARENDER. ARINDER, ORANDER, ETC. FAMILIES OF THE SOUTH
THROUGH 1920

The ARENDER (ORANDER) families of the South are not numerous, and all probably had a common origin in VA. There are several feasible sources for the name. The earliest record for such a name is in a list prepared by George C. GREER, Early Virginia Immigrants, p 12. James ARENDEER was transported in 1651 by Col Guy MOLSWORTH, county not listed. No other record has been identified for this person, and it seems most likely that he died without progeny, or that the name died out.

There was a Henry ORRINDORE on the Fairfax Co, VA, tax list for 1782. This name would seem to be phonetically similar to what became ORANDER or ARENDER, or the many variations. No other record has been found in VA for this name.

A third possibility is that the name was spelled with an H, which became silent in transition. The name Horender or Horindore is sometimes found, but has not been traced.

There is fourth more plausible source for the name. In the Shenandoah and Great Valleys of VA, there were several families of German origin named ORRENDORFF/AHRENDORFF, etc. There had been earlier immigrants of this name to NY, PA, and MD. When branches of these families moved away from the German-speaking or German heritage areas, their name was anglicized to ORRENDUFF, ORNDOF, ARNDORF, ARENDERF, etc. In 1787, Henry ORRENDURFF was in Pittsylvania Co, VA, where ORENDER and ORANDER families later lived. It is quite conceivable that ORANDER and ORRENDER are corruptions of ORRENDORFF. Branches of the ORANDER/ARENDEER family in SC and MS did not read nor write until about 1900, so there are no records of a transition. In fact, one of the reasons the ARENDER family cannot be traced may be the transitions in the family name. The name of the immigrant ancestor was likely spelled with a beginning O, but A and H cannot be ruled out.

(There are two family groups which are not ours. The Swedish ORANDER families lived at Munkabo, Varmland Province, Sweden, and probably in other parts of Sweden and in Lithuania. The Finnish ORIANDER families lived at Kokkola, Vaasa Province, and at Marttila and Koski in Turki Pori Province. While members of these families migrated to the U. S. fairly recently, they did not settle in the South.)

Known records of the phonetic ORANDER/ARENDEER name follow, with a few additions of ORRENDORF when that name was in the same area. There are thousands of the ORRENDORF variants in the U. S., but they are mostly north of the families of our interest.

1651 Virginia. James ARENDEER was transported by Col. Guy MOLSWORTH. (If this person had descendants, they left no records. Even one son would have hundreds of descendants. He probably died without sons.)

1709-1713 Mohawk Valley, NY. One of the early Palatines settling in the Mohawk Valley was Johan Hendrick OHRENDORF, who served in the 1711 Expedition against Canada as Jno. Hen. ORENDORFF/ARENDORFF. He lived in Annsburg. He md Anna Margaretha ??? and one ch was Maria Elisabetha (25 May 17??). Later he had a ch in Schenectady named Jannetje (3 May 1713). At that time they were recorded as Hendrik and Ann Margaret OIRENDORPH. So the very first immigrant had the same spelling variations that troubled recorders for 200 years. (p 35, J. 1800 Edgefield Co, SC. At one time it was thought that an ORNDER name had been found on the list of nearly completely blurred and unidentifiable names. The rolls for 1810 and 1820 are completely legible, and no such name was found. It is believed that ORNDER individuals were in the county before 1820, but with some head of hh with another surname.

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION

Dear Jean,

I looked through your books I have, and I did not find one on marriages of Jones County. Have you done one? If so I'd be glad to purchase a copy.

I'm looking for some Mason and Arinder marriages in Jones Co before 1900, specifically before 1880 for Mason and 1870-1900 for Arinder.

I've enclosed for your genealogical research library a research aid for Arinder / Arinder. Probably you will have a customer or two each year. You may want to bind the materials in a better form.

With my regards,

Yours sincerely,
Granville W. Hough

P.S. I haven't heard from Frances Dykes recently. I had some information for her about one of our cousins, Coach Eddie Hough of Bassfield.

HENRY AND ALOUTHEA ORINDER OF SC AND MS

Henry ORINDER ( 1790/1800 NC - disappeared 1840/41 MS) apparently grew up and md in SC. According to ORANDER families in Saluda Co, SC, one of their family went west and was never heard from again. About 1818 in Saluda Co, SC (formerly part of Edgefield Co), Henry ORINDER md Alouthea MCCARTY (19 July 1800 SC - after 1860 MS) dau of Edward and Sarah (LARAMORE) MCCARTY of SC and MS.

Henry and Letha started their family in SC, but a few years later he either moved with or joined Letha's parents and several other members of her family in Wayne Co, MS. By 1830, they were in Rankin Co, MS, still near members of the MCCARTY family. The MCCARTYs recall that Henry ORINDER was an erratic person. On 3 Nov 1835, he sold land in Rankin Co, indicating he lived about two miles East of Brandon. This was at the time of the Choctaw Cession, and he may have been planning a move into the land vacated by the Choctaws. Neither he nor his family can be identified in 1840, and it is recalled that he simply disappeared about that time. Whether he died or simply left his family is not now known. By 1841, Letha had taken her family back to Wayne Co.

The 1830 census suggests there were one son and four daughters in the family at that time. Another son was born that year. Two sons and one dau can be identified in later records. Apparently Letha ORINDER had to break up her family and send her children to live with MCCARTY relatives. In 1845, the state census shows her with one son and one dau. She has not yet been found in 1850. Ch:

1. Matilda (1819 SC - after 1880) md Zebedee MASON and lived in Wayne, Scott, Jasper, and Jones counties. They were probably md by 1841 as Zebedee MASON was head of a household in Wayne Co for the state census. Ch incl Zebedee, Jr.; Frances; Catherine; Altema; and Margaret. In 1880, their own ch had gone but M. ARENDER was a female servant with them, and she had four ARENDER daus: Nisey; Visey; Albana; and Anjaline. There is no ready explanation of who these ARENDERS were, but they may have been part of Tillman ARINDER's family.

2. Martha ( ) no info.

3. Julia ( ) no info.

④ Sampson ?Ocemus? (1825 Wayne Co, MS - 24 Oct 1919 Smith Co, MS) on 15 Sep 1856 in Smith Co, MS, md Nancy BOWEN, dau of Samuel and Sarah (HARTLEY) BOWEN. They lived the remainder of their lives in the same area in Smith Co or across the line in Rankin Co. Their ch were Albert S.; Sance; Mary Aletha; Caroline; Henry Monroe; Amos Whitfield; Sally Genita; Porter Lewis; Leonard; Lona Jane; Alhanan

Hulen; Guy Warren; Noll Frederick; and Banie. Sampson's descendants adopted the ARENDER spelling. Sampson served as a Confederate soldier in Comp. C or G, 46th Miss Inf, and was a prisoner of war at the end of the conflict.

5. Tillman (2 July 1830 Rankin Co, MS - after 1910 MS) had two or more wives. There is an oral tradition that he had trouble with his first wife, Minerva HAGON, during the Civil War and that he had more trouble later. He served in Comp. E, *th Miss Inf and in Comp. F, 40th Miss Inf. Census records indicate he was in Clark Co, MS, in 1860 with wife M. and son Rufus F. (1858 MS). At that time his mother, Letha ORINDER, was with him and a male S. M. MILLS (1848 MS) also. By 1870, he had md (2) Elizabeth PATTERSON (1847 MS), of GA parents, and was in Smith Co of GA parents, with added ch Mary K. (1860 MS); Henry Horace (1866); and William F. (1868); and Mary E. DUNFORD (1860 MS). Tillman and Elizabeth were in Beat 2 of Covington Co in 1880 with ch Henry and William F. The woman and four daus with Tilda MASON in Jones Co could be the same wife as the one in 1860. They do not match the 1870 list at all, but there is no other known ARENDER or ORRENDER family. The sons Rufus F.; Horis Henry; and William F. can be identified with families in 1900, but the only female identified thus far is Mary, who md (1) William DICKENS and (2) Henry UPTON. In 1900, Tillman was in Beat 5 of Smith Co with wife Annie E. (Feb 1846 MS). In 1910, Tillman and wife Annie B. were in Jeff Davis Co. Tillman's descendants adopted the spelling ARINDER.

?. The only other possible name possibly associated with daus Julia or Martha is that of S. M. MILLS (1848 MS) who was with Tillman ARINDER in 1860 as a possible nephew.

On the 1850 census for Edgefield Co, SC, there is a possible indication of the mother of Henry ORINDER, and a possible sister, or other close relative. With William MCCARTY (1800 SC) and wife Mary (1810 SC) was Lydia ORANDER (1775 VA), probable mother-in-law, and probable widow of Isaac ORANDER. The MCCARTY ch were William (1834); Isaac (1837); Lydia A. (1839); Mary (1841); Lucretia (1843); Margaret (1839); Lucinda (1847); and son Millege (1849).

Lineage is Henry and Alouthea (MCCARTY) ORINDER of SC and MS; possibly Isaac and Lydia ORANDER of VA and SC; possibly Henry ORINDORE of VA;

McCarty lineage is Alouthea (MCCARTY) and Henry ORINDER of SC and MS; Edward and Sarah (LARAMORE) MCCARTY of SC and MA; Michael, Jr, and Martha ( )MCCARTY of SC; Michael MCCARTY, Sr, of SC;

To my ARENDER/ARINDER cousins:

This research aid was developed to assist you in researching the Arender/Arinder families of MS.

The progenitors of these families were Henry and Alouthea (MCCARTY) ORENDER/ORINDER of SC and MS. It seems clear from census entries that there were more than three children in their 20 years of marriage, but the names of only three have come down to us in family folklore. These were Matilda, who married Zebedee MASON; Sampson, who founded the ARENDER family; and Tillman, who founded the ARINDER family. It would be of great interest to me and to others if we could identify the other children.

So far as I know, there has been no development of the descendants of Matilda MASON, nor for Tillman ARINDER. I have enclosed my first efforts on those families. I would particularly like to correspond with cousins who descend from these two.

In reading the enclosed summaries, you will note there are unresolved problems with the children of Minerva (HOGAN) ARINDER, who was in 1880 with Zebedee and Matilda MASON. Marriage records have not been found for her daughters, nor for the daughters of Zebedee and Matilda MASON.

I wish you success in your family history efforts, and please share them with me.

Yours sincerely,

Granville W. Hough

MATILDA (ORINDER) AND ZEBEDEE MASON OF SC AND MS

Matilda "Tildy" ORINDER/ORENDER (1818/1819 SC - after 1880 prob Jones Co, MS), grew up in MS after her parents moved from SC to MS along with her grandparents, Edward and Sarah (LAREMON) McCARTY. At first, they lived in Wayne Co, MS, then in Rankin Co, then back to Wayne Co, after her father, Henry ORINDER, disappeared about 1840. About 1840, she md Zebedee MASON (1810 TN - after 1880 prob Jones Co, MS).

She and Zebedee lived among or near McCARTY relatives for many years. They were in Wayne Co in 1841, Clarke Co in 1843, Clarke Co 1851-54, then in 1860 in Smith Co. Their next neighbor in Smith Co was Alfred McCARTY, her first cousin. By 1870, they had moved into Jones Co, where they were in 1880. This is the last record for them.

It is now known that Zebedee MASON bought the land of John C. HOGAN, who had died intestate in 1869. He bought the land from the widow, Sarah HOGAN, and her adult ch, probably not knowing it was encumbered by debt. The creditor, William McCURDY, sued Zebedee MASON and the heirs of John C. HOGAN over the land. Whatever the outcome was, Zebedee stayed in Jones Co.

The MASON ch who are known are:

1. Frances (1850 MS - ) prob md by 1870.
2. Catherine (1851 MS - ) prob md by 1870.
3. Altema (1853 MS - ) prob md by 1880.
4. Margaret (1858 MS - ) prob md by 1880.
5. Zebedee, Jr (1865 Smith Co, MS - ), not listed with parents in 1880.

Unless this was a second marriage for Zebedee, there were likely ch born before 1850.

There was a close relationship between Zebedee and Tildy and a female M. ARINDER, believed to be former wife of Tillman ARENDER. She had been Minerva HOGAN (1840 MS - after 1880). In 1870, she was a close neighbor to Zebedee and Tildy, and in 1880, she was in their hh as a servant, along with her ch. These ch are listed as ARINDER: Martha (1864 MS); Dicy/Nisey (1867 MS); Vicey (1871 MS); Albana (1876 MS); and Angeline (1878 MS). M. ARINDER was 40 years old in 1880. It is not known that there were other ch. None of these ARINDER persons have been identified later.

Orinder lineage is Matilda and Zebedee Mason of SC and MS; Henry and Alouthea (McCarty) of SC and MS; poss. Isaac and Lydia ( ) Orinder of VA and SC:
